

As'salamu'alaikum!

Alhamdulillah!
We are Muslim
We worship Allah
We want to go to Jannah!

How can we get to Jannah

Make Allah happy

Do good deeds

Stay away from bad deeds

Do extra good deeds

Not copy the Non-Muslims

We are different from the Non-Muslims in certain things,

Beliefs

We believe in Allah, Angels, Quran, the Prophets (AS), Akhirah

Worship

We pray Salah, Hajj, recite Quran, fast in Ramadan

Celebrations

Eid al Adha, Eid al Fitr

Is Halloween a Muslim celebration?

Yes Or No

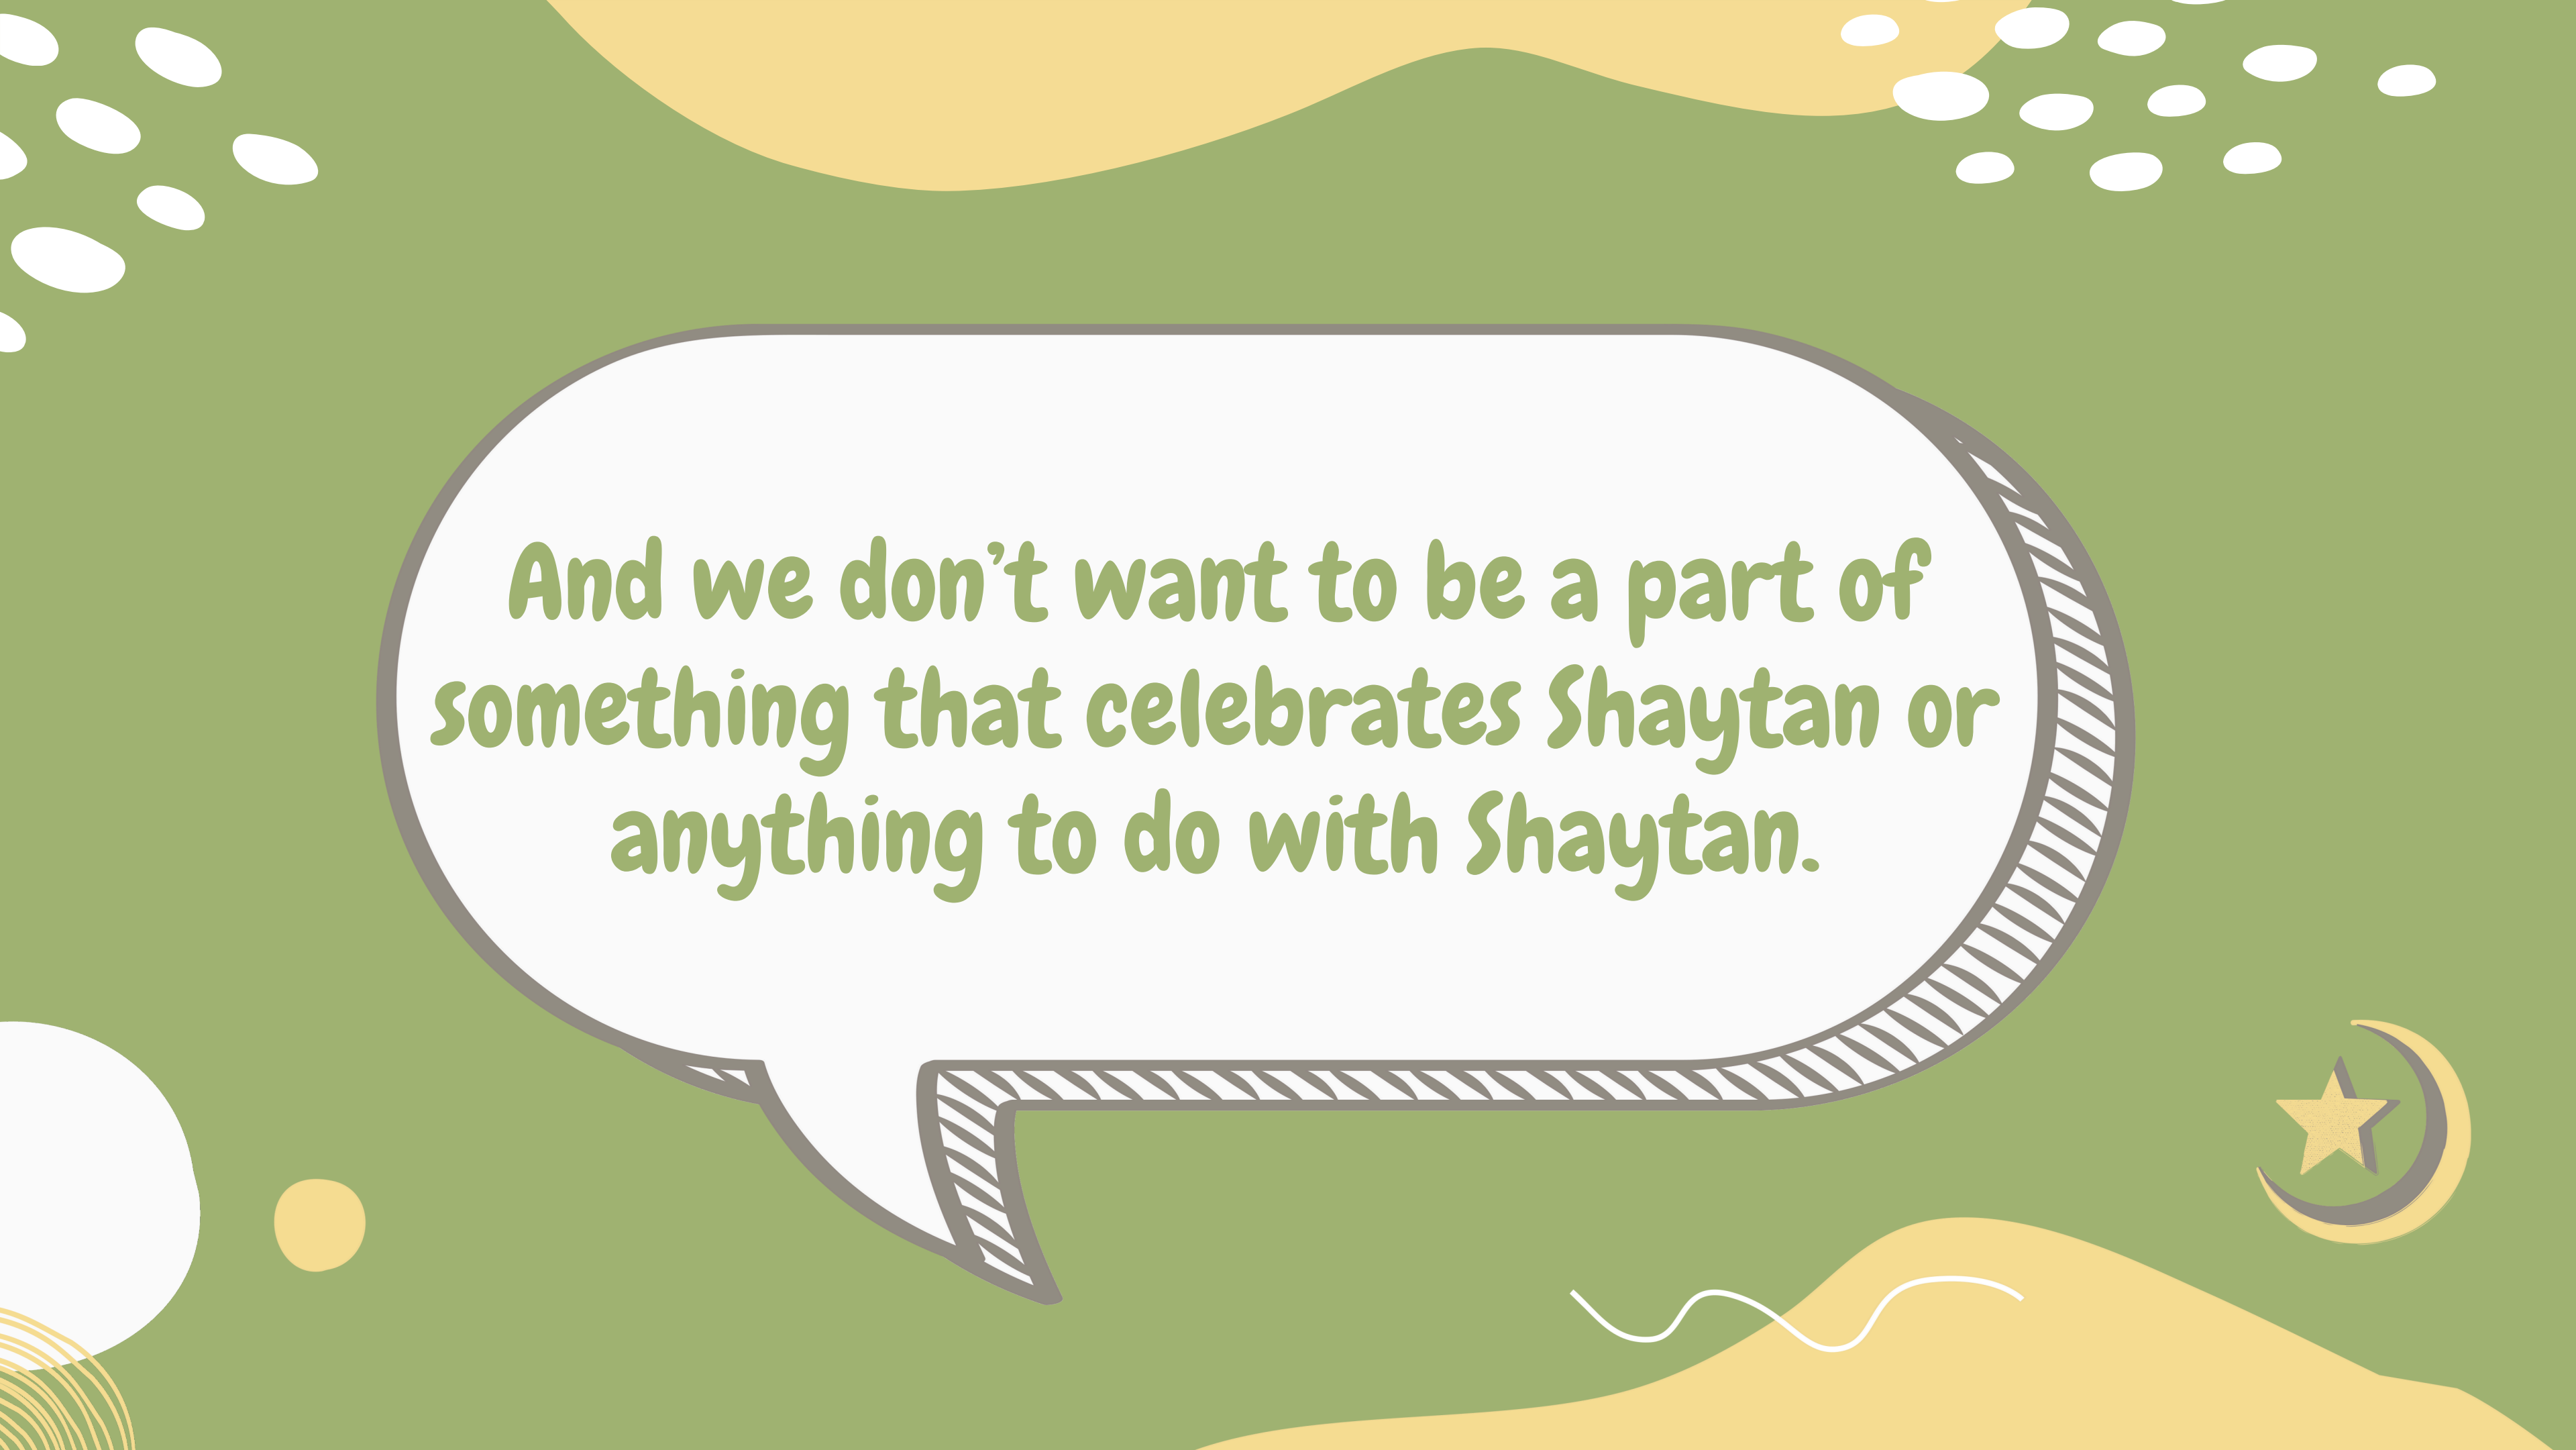

What is Halloween?

Nowadays, Halloween is celebrated by putting on costumes and trick or treating.

They say this is just for fun.

BUT Halloween is all about evil things, like scary ghosts, devils, zombies, etc.

And we don't want to be a part of something that celebrates Shaytan or anything to do with Shaytan.

Halloween is also about spooking and tricking people and that is not allowed in Islam because we don't want to harm others.

SO HOW DID HALLOWEEN START?

Answer

CELTIC (people in Scotland,
Ireland and England)

Celtic

As Muslims, it's important we follow what is in our religion and there is no Halloween in Islam.

قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: «مَنْ تَشَبَّهَ بِقَوْمٍ فَهُوَ مِنْهُمْ» .
رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَأَبُو دَاوُدَ

Allah's Messenger (SAW) said: He who copies other people is one of them.

So, who do we want to be like? Who do we want to be with on the Day of Qiyamah?

Do we want to see our beloved Prophet Mohammed (SAW)?

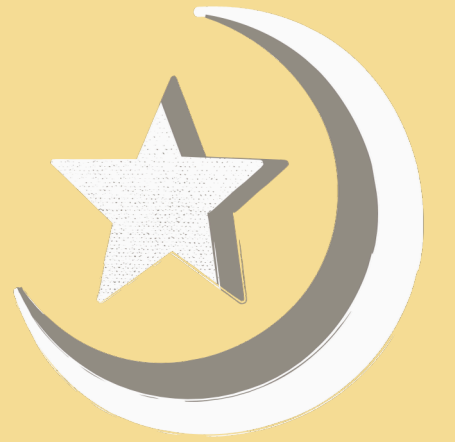

Can you eat candy?

Yes, just like any day

Can you play dress up?

Yes, just like any day

*But not with evil or devil looking costumes.

Don't feel left out.
Instead, make dua'a for the guidance of Non-Muslims.

Be a Leader, not a Follower*

Be the Influencer, not the influenced*

Show the world the beauty of Islam

What else can we do?
